READY FOR WAR OR PEACE

Attitude of the Shuberts Toward Syndicate Is Defined.

Lee Shubert, of the firm of Shubert Brothers, theatrical managers, yesterday made a statement regarding the stand taken by his firm in the controversy between it and the syndicate, on the ground that because of incorrect statements he thought the public misunderstood his posi-

"For some time there has been friction between our firm and the firm of Klaw & Erlanger, booking agents of the syndicate," he said. "We recently had reason to believe that the syndicate would refuse to book our attractions next season. While we are not by any means sure of this, and will not be until I have had a talk with Mr. Erlanger, we have naturally been casting about to see what we could do in the event of a refusal. We have more theatres than attractions, and in seeking possible aid we have turned to managers not affiliated with the trust who have more plays than theatres. Among these are Harrison Grey Fiske and David Belasco.

"As has been repeatedly published, I have promised to give both these managers 'time' in all houses outside of New-York City if they want it. We have not formed any anti-syndicate whatsoever. We are not going to fight cate whatsoever. We are not going to fight any one, and the statement that we are planning to start a war to test the syndicate's strength is not only unequivocally false, but also decidedly foolish. Should the trust refuse to book our plays, the situation in New-York City will not be changed in the slightest way, as we have theatres in the city and will use them as heretofore. As a matter of fact, I can pretty much fill out-of-town houses with Shubert attractions. There will be necessarily some time left, and that may be filled in by Mrs. Fiske and Mr. Belasco. I expect to have an interview with Mr. Erianger in a few days, and if he closes his houses to us I will send out a statement to the public announcing our plans in detail."

FORT GEORGE IN TOILS.

Mr. McAdoo to Meet Proprietors and Demand Reform.

Following the exposé in The Tribune of the de plorable conditions existing at Fort George, where vice is openly flaunted in the faces of the officials, Commissioner McAdoo has made a personal investigation, which practically indorses the printed statements in The Tribune. As a result the Commissioner has invited the proprietors of the resorts at the Fort to come and see him at once. The proprietors are slated to visit him to-mor-

The proprietors are stated to visit him to-morrow, and it is not unlikely that they will hear some plain talk. The Commissioner says there must be a change at the Fort, and the proprietors must begin, otherwise the department will.

"They have got to meet me half way," he said yesterday, "and make necessary reforms which I will demand."

SHERLOCK HOLMES IN BELLEVUE.

Works Deduction on Dr. Gregory's Ear and a Kicking Horse.

A kicking horse and a Sherlock Holmes appeared simultaneously at Bellevue yesterday. The horse was very busy demolishing the wagon behind it, from which it had previously kicked its driver, Joseph Morris, and his friend Jacob Goldstein, when the sleuth came up.

"You sleep on the right side," he told Dr. Gregory. "Why? Easy. Your right ear is bigger than the left. I am the real Sherlock Holmes, here from Scotland Yard. Do you want to know why that

Dr. Gregory procured a straitjacket and invited the sleuth into the reception room

Over a cup of strong coffee, after plying the in-evitable hypodermic, the lynx-eyed detective again broached the subject of the kicking horse. "Do you know why that horse kicked?" "No." said the doctor. "Well, neither do I," and the detective walked out.

The horse was finally calmed and taken to its stable, No. 178 Suffolk-st. Continued next week with Sherlock Holmes's further adventures in Bellevue—provided he is cap-ected delegates to choose for them three members of the teachers' retirement committee under the revised pension law. The delegates will meet at Monday afternoon to make the final selection.

MALE PRINCIPALS LOSE FIGHT.

Delegates to Choose Retirement Committee Are Largely Women.

The choosing of the delegates was the culmination of a struggle between the class teachers and the school principals. A special effort was made to keep the men principals from the committee, and John P. Conroy, chairman of the pension com-mittee of the Interborough Council, was defeated in the 18th school district by Miss Teresa Bernholz,

In Brooklyn Principal Lyman A. Best, president of the Interborough Council and the Brooklyn Teachers' Association, was chosen. He was the head of the entire pension movement. Miss Ruth Granger was also chosen. Returns from eighteen of the forty-six school districts show that seven male principals, four women principals, two men teachers and five women teachers have been chosen. The retirement board will consist of the three representatives of the teachers, the City Superintendent of Schools, the president of the Board of Education and the commissioners in charge of the high and elementary school committees.

TILE LAYERS' LOCKOUT ENDS.

Men and Employers to Ratify Agreement

The lockout of the tile layers, which has lasted for many months, is expected to be declared off this week, an agreement having been reached yes terday at a conference between Henry C. Raasch, president of the Tile Layers and Helpers' International Union, and the officers of the Grate, Tile and Mantel Association, by which the fight is ended. This agreement will be ratified to-day at a general meeting of the tile lavers tile layers, which is working under the arbitration agreement, and Local No. 39, which is locked out, will both disband and reunite in one union, to be known as Local No. 52, with a charter from the international union, and will come under the arbitration agreement. The new union is incorporated under the laws of the State, but in disbanding will give up its national charter.

GETS ESTATE AFTER TWENTY YEARS.

Nephew Finally Gets Property Left Him for Care of Uncle.

Charles F. Gall, of Brooklyn, has just obtained a decision from the Court of Appeals establishing his right to the estate of Joseph Gall, his uncle. The case has been in litigation for twenty years. The uncle promised to leave his entire estate to his nephew if he would care for him the remainder of his life. After the death of the elder Mr. Gall objection to the probate of the will was made the ground that a woman said she had married the testator after the will had been made. After much litigation a judgment for $2,960 against the estate was found in favor of the nephew. This has just been affirmed by the Court of Appeals.

REPUBLICANS SEND NO ANSWER.

Citizens Union Nominating Committee Meets but Takes No Action.

The nominating committee of the Citizens Union met in the office of R. Fulton Cutting yesterday, when it expected to hear from the Republican County Committee on resolutions passed at its tation to join in a municipal movement. No reply was received by the union, it was said, and no action was taken. It was said, however, that the members of the nominating committee expressed its opinion that it regards the Republican organization as partisan.

Word was received by the committee from Tammany Hall, saying Tammany would reply to the union's invitation after the meeting of the general committee in the fail.

BIG STRIKE NEAR END?

Chicago Sheriff Thinks So-Torturing a Non-Union Man.

Chicago, June 20 .- Sheriff Barrett to-day gave out the following significant statement: "This strike will be over within twenty-four ours. I expect to make speedy arrangement for decreasing the force of deputy sheriffs," Edward Bickett, a non-union teamster, was tortured early to-day by four strike sympathizers. Bickett was attacked in front of the Teamsters' Union headquarters. After being knocked down by the men, three fingers of his right hand were broken and two of his finger nails torn off. The victim begged the men to have mercy, but his cries were in vain, and when the assailants left he was unconscious in the street. There he was found later by a

TO FIGHT BOGUS CLAIMS.

Accident Insurance Men Organize Protective Association.

Following a dinner given last night at Sherry's by the Casualty Company of America to representa-tives of accident insurance companies and department stores there was a decision to form the Casualty and Indemnity Underwriters' Association, the object of which will be the discouragement of false claims for fictitious or exaggerated accidents and the abolition of the "ambulance chasing" sys-tem. Theodore Waters, who has been investigating the "graft" systems of different cities, de-scribed the methods adopted by dishonest lawyers, physicians, police and others in pressing bogus claims for accidents. Mr. Waters said he had allowed himself to be thrown from cars and to seem ingly meet with accidents, and he had been pur-sued by persons who not only wanted to collect big damages for him, but also in many instances offered to furnish witnesses. He said he knew of cases where ambulance chasers had themselves committed to hospitals for the purpose of getting close to patients who had met with accidents.

A committee of ten will be named to incorporate the organization, and detectives will be engaged to nvestigate thoroughly all claims. The representative of a 6th-ave, department store said he recently caught a woman who made a practice of taking her hittle child into the elevators, having trained it to poke its finger through the elevator cage. For the slight injuries received she would demand heavy indemnity.

Jenkins, W. S. Muir, Louis H. Fidel, E. H. Winslow, W. F. Moore, E. C. Waller, Edmund F. Green, George A. Moore, George W. Royhouse, D. M. Ferry, S. C. Dunham, B. F. Tracy and John R. Bland.

LADDER CHARGED WITH ELECTRICITY.

Firemen Hit Trolley Wire While Rescuing People from Burning Building.

Several firemen were shocked when an extension adder which was being raised against the four story double flathouse at No. 445 De Kalb-ave., Brooklyn, came in contact with a trolley wire late yesterday afternoon. The entire truck became charged, and the horses danced with pain, one of them falling on the pavement. Six families 1ad to make their way to the street by way of the fire escapes.

The fire broke out in the cellar, and the entire building was soon filled with smoke. The tenants fied to the fire escapes and were assisted to the street by the firemen. Mrs. Anna McKenna and her son William were overcome by smoke and had to be carried out of the building.

ROBBED IN FORT GEORGE-AVE.

Merchant Attacked-Unconscious for Half an Hour-Pin, Watch and Money Gone.

William T. Walton, jr., a dry goods merchant at No. Sil Sth-ave., was beaten senseless at Audubon and Fort George aves, yesterday merning, and was robbed of a diamond scarfpin, a gold watch and chain and $75. So sudden and overwhelming was the attack that he does not know how many assaulted him. It was half an hour before he re-

Patrolman Voorhees found Walton suffering from a scalp wound two inches long. The policeman called an ambulance from J. Hood Wright Hospital, and Walton was taken there. It was found that Walton's skull had not been injured by the blow.

The attack upon Walton is the third hold-up in this neighborhood in the last few weeks. It is a favorable spot for hold-up men, as it is dark and unfrequented. Victims for highwaymen are provided by persons leaving Fort George late, as Mr. Walton was.

SUIT TO SETTLE RIGHT TO RESTRICT.

Brooklyn Man Refuses to Take Title to Property if He Cannot Build Stable.

Real estate men are much interested in a suit brought by Elizabeth Goodrich to compel John T. Fratt, son of the founder of Pratt Institute, to ske title to the property at No. 416 Clinton-ave., Brooklyn, decision in which was reserved by Justice Dickey, in the Supreme Court, Brooklyn, yesterday, Mr. Pratt says that when last December he signed contract to purchase the property for $75,000 it was with the understanding that it should be "free and clear of all incumbrances." He did not know that through the efforts of the Clinton Avenue Improvement Association a bill restricting property in provement Association a bill restricting property in Clinton-ave, had been passed by the legislature. The bill provided for a new courtyard line and prohibited the building of stables. It had been Mr. Pratt's Intention to build a fine home on the property, the plans providing for a handsome stable. The restrictions on the property will prevent the building of the stable and for that reason Mr. Pratt does not want to take title to it.

If the court upholds his contention that he is not obliged to take the property on account of the restrictions it is thought that purchasers of other property "free and clear of all incumbrances" will refuse to take title, if there are restrictions of a similar character.

DREAM ACQUITS MAN OF MURDER.

Chief Witness, in a Vision, Saw Another Do the Killing.

[BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.] St. Louis, June 20.—A dream of Jacques Stark, principal witness against John Schneider, charged with murdering a man named Mutzberg, a saloon day in Schneider's acquittal. Stark had previously positively identified Schneider as the murderer.
"I don't believe in dreams," said Stark, "but this was too vivid. I was in Mutzberg's saloon. Charles Salisbury, myself and Mutzberg were chatting. The doors suddenly opened, and two men, armed and masked, entered, 'Hands up!' one told me in just the same manner as the robber had originally commanded. Then came the attack on the robbers by Salisbury and Mutzberg. The mask fell from the robber's face, and he faced me. Not Schneider, came from his lips, not Schneider, but me and Jim Davis.

"The face was not Schneider's, but that of George Burns. The face of the second robber was that of Jim Davis. I knew it the moment I saw it."

Burns was killed and Davis was captured last January when just the same manner as the robber had originally the Garden City line, and as far as Main-st., is the recognized stamping ground of a "Jack the Hugger," as the mysterious personage has come to be known in Hempstead. The man is described as wearing a light suit and a slouch hat, which he pulls over his eyes just before he indulges in his passion for embracing pretty women. He is thort and dark. The fact that the women say he is exceedingly muscular has not acted as a deterrent upon the indignant husbands and brothers who wish to chastise him. Among the women who have been hugged and kissed by the hugger are some of the best known young women in Hempstead.

Their relatives have used every effort to keep their names from becoming public. Miss Anna McLean and Mrs. Benjamin Mollineaux are two whom the man attempted to hug, but who proved too fleet of foot for him. As soon as they reached their homes and told the male members of their families that they had been chased by the hugger pursuit was begun, but without result.
